

INDIAN COTEMPORARY STATE ACTIVITY AND POLICY :
A RESEARCH STUDY FROM POLITICAL SCIENCE CLASS ROOM

- Dr. Y. JANARDHANA REDDY,

Associate Professor,
Department of Political Science,
SHMS Government First Grade College,
TEKKALAKOTE-583122, Bellary, District, Karnataka, India.
Yjereddy2011@gmail.com

ABSTRACT

“Change is the law of land “, from Red Fort to Resina hills, Indians had not contributed for the political thought during ancient and medieval periods on the state rule and administration is the general opinion. They fail to protect their boundaries. So, that is why, we find no political history and thought of Indians of their own. This one of the versions from the political science class room.

KEYWORDS

Indian Contemporary State Activity, Policy, Political Science Classroom

