The old couple is on honeymoon in a starry night for weeks after a long period, far off from the madding crowd. They spare their time on the beach by immersing into the persistence of absurdity, reawakening of beauty and the eternity of transitoriness. Time defaces beauty and beauty surpasses the timeless time. Absences overtake the presence which merges into the ultimate truth of life. They brood over love, lust and sex and finally attune to the Man-Nature-God relationship for the attainment of super-consciousness of human souls through Samadhi. It is a spiritual meditation on time and eternity, heading towards the ultimate redemption of all the human souls from the cycle of birth and death.

Dazzling Dews on the Leaf is a symbolic manifestation of the liveliness of lost love, a rebirth of lurking hope and the perpetual tranquility of human chaos.
